CORNWALL COUNCIL LEGAL WARNING re. unauthorised absence

If your child is absent from school without authorisation, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may submit a request to Cornwall Council for a Penalty Notice to be issued, in accordance with Sections 444A and 444B of the said Act. Penalty Notices are issued per liable parent, per child and each carry a fine of £80 if paid within 21 days or £160 if paid after this but within 28 days.

If your child is further absent from school without authorisation within any 3-year period, you will be committing a further offence under the Education Act 1996. We may submit a request to Cornwall Council for a Penalty Notice to be issued, in accordance with Sections 444A and 444B of the said Act. Penalty Notices for a second offence are issued per liable parent, per child and each carry a fine of £160, payable within 28 days.

Importantly, fines per parent will be capped to two fines within any three-year period. Once this limit has been reached, other action such as a parenting order or prosecution will be considered. Failure to pay the Penalty Notice may also result in legal action. If you are prosecuted and attend court because your child has not been attending school, you could get a fine of up to £2,500. Cornwall Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court, including legal costs.

Absence not authorised by the school may also result in a prosecution in the Magistrates' Court under Section 444(1) or Section 444(1A) of the Education Act 1996, leading to a fine of up to £2,500 and/or a custodial sentence. Again, Cornwall Council may also apply for the costs incurred in taking the matter to Court, including legal costs. Money raised from fines is only used by the local authority to cover the costs of administering the system, and to fund attendance support. Any extra money is returned to the government.

Well done to all of the children in Choughs and Razorbills classes who performed 'The Pied Piper' to family and friends this week. A special mention to the children who had to step in at last minute and perform the parts of those children who were absent for the shows....you were extra amazing! 😊

It was a sad goodbye this morning to our Swiss students Emily and Nora who leave us today having spent the last two weeks working with our children.

We have all loved working with Emily and Nora and wish them well as they further their education into a career in teaching.

A Message for children in current Year2

From Monday 6th July Mrs O'Neill asks that (as part of their transition in to Year 3) her current Year 2 children come in to school via the main school entrance where they will then independently hang up their coats etc and enter Puffins classrooms through the main school corridor.

Collection at 3.15pm will remain the same and the children may be picked up from the usual side gate.

Mrs O'Neill and Mrs Humby feels this will help immensely in a smooth transition for those children into Year 3.
